The Charred Man is the western thriller about a farmer and his giant deformed son who move out west and terrorize a western town by killing and raping without remorse. J Everett Earl is hired to go after the killers of a rich and powerful judge's family. Earl finds the culprits but narrowly misses becoming a victim himself. In the end, the father of the charred man is given an Old West necktie and that is the end of the story. I like MI Behrman's two other Kindle books better, especially.
